

Request for information (RFI) regarding a system that provides collision warning for ship to shore cranes in order to prevent collision with a ships

General

As preliminary process prior to the issuance of a public tender or any other procedure for the supply, of a system that provides collision warning for ship to shore cranes in order to prevent collision with a ships , to Ashdod Port Company Ltd. (hereinafter: "APC"), APC wish to receive information regarding existing technologies or systems from suppliers (hereinafter the "Request").

Information Requested

Without any obligation, APC hereby invites suppliers of the aforesaid systems to provide written information as detailed below:

1. General Information-

Response to the general questions included in the first tablet in Section 2 to the answering form, attached as Appendix A hereto.

In case the responder to this Request is a representative agent of the supplier, responder shall submit supplier's authorization to answer this Request or supplier's authorization nominating responder as supplier's representative agent..

2. Technical information -

Information regarding the technical details of the system, as specified in the second tablet in section 2 to the answering form, attached as appendix A hereto.

3. Additional useful information that the Responder to this request wishes to add.

Submission of Responses

4. Responses shall be submitted not later than Thursday, 9.6.2011, at 14:00 IL Time, to the Tender Box, at the chamber of the head of Equipment Procurement Department, Equipment Department Building, 1st floor, Port of Ashdod.

Responses submitted thereafter shall not be accepted.

Responses may be submitted during the usual working hours (08:00 to 16:00 IL time).

5. Questions and clarifications regarding this Request may be addressed in writing to Mr. Dani gat, head of Equipment Procurement Department via fax number: +972-8-8517408 or e-mail danig@ashdodport.co.il till 31.5.2011, at 12:00 IL time

General

6. This Request does not constitute a public tender, and does not constitute any obligation of APC to continue and/or act in the subject, or in any other manner.

This request does not constitute a contract or any other legal relationship between the APC and any of the respondents.

However, APC reserves the right to use the information obtained under this Request, all in accordance with its sole discretion.

7. In the event APC shall decide to execute any purchase procedure in the subject matter, APC shall be entitled to amend or add any requirements or conditions included herein, all subject to APC's professional judgment and in accordance with its needs.

8. APC reserves its right to require clarifications and additional information from respondents. In addition APC shall be entitled to meet with the responders.

9. APC is entitled, at any time, to postpone the last date set for submitting the response as well as to change the instructions and terms related to this Request, all at its sole and absolute discretion.

10. Submission of a response to this Request shall not be a condition precedent to participating in any tender and/or other procedure that may be executed (if any), nor will create an advantage in any tender and/or other future procedure to any such respondent.

Further, will not obligate APC to approach respondent in any such future procedures nor will obligate APC to engage with any respondent in any way whatsoever.

11. information submitted to APC further to this Request, as per Sections 1 and- 2 above, which shall be used for publishing a Tender (as defined in the Mandatory Tenders Law, 1992 and the Mandatory Tenders Regulations, 1993) at the end of which respondent will be selected as the winning proposer, will be subject to the terms of regulation no. 21 (E) to the Mandatory Tenders Regulations, 1993.